! Objective Functions require gradients.
For everything else we still need metrics.